PERSONALS

DESIRES IN PRINT

September 2008

This is the first book by erotic photographer Steve DT, and it's a collection of photographs that celebrate and is inspired by, the hopes and dreams of adult advertisers and their readers. Both want some control and change to invade their personal lives.

The Personals Adverts are often tucked away within the back pages of newspapers and magazines, and are sometimes overlooked, but they never fail to interest even the passer-by.

In Personals: desires in print, the focus is on women's adverts; their searches, desires, wants and peccadilloes. The adverts featured in the book are genuine adverts from several European sources, reinforcing the belief that desire in any language is universal in its meaning.
